RUMOR MILL

...the grist of politics

It seems appropriate — not to mention the kicks we'll get out of it — to start a little column about politics. It will appear sporadically throughout the rest of this election year.

As the name implies, some of what appears may not be attributable to an identifiable person. And rather than fall back on those worn-out old phrases such as "usually reliable sources," "well-informed persons close to the candidate, or just plain "political observers," we'll just print what we hear. Undoubtedly the sly politicos will attempt to "use" us by floating trial balloons, but we'll endeavor to warn at the outset or end of each column that readers may be getting a whiff of the old "smoke-filled" maneuvering.

Anyway, the first order of business naturally is the elections for city offices in April. We've had considerable to say about them already. We hardly need say now that the jockeying for position is getting fierce.

Although Councilman Steve Ross is the only announced mayor candidate, there is certain to be a race. Councilman Bud Houser will run if Mayor Lou Haddad keeps his word that he won't stand for re-election Otherwise Houser will try to keep his council seat.

At any rate, that ugly, black-white issue has wedged itself into the race. White members of the anti-establishment forces have tried unsuccessfully to get Ross to step out of the race because they don't think a black man can win the mayor's job.

But Ross figures this may be his one big chance to make mayor; he's not getting any younger and next time he'll be well into his 50s; in 1972 he wouldn't have his council seat protected in mid-term as this time; he's found politics costly, as has Haddad. Besides, Ross believes his long, diligent service ought to be worth something. He is a proud black man, and he sincerely believes he can be a credit to all blacks by being mayor for all the races of Seaside. He answers those critics who question whether he's strong enough to run the city with the admonition that as a minority councilman, both in race and numbers, he has always been compromised and has never had unified support. But not the least of Ross's determination comes from those 1,089 votes he got in 1968, half of the total cast and the greatest percentage of any city candidate in the last five elections.

There's no census prove it, but the Negro population of Seaside has increased since 1968, while the total population has declined. That means blacks have a greater percentage. Obviously, Ross interprets this as a shift in his favor.

Meanwhile Haddad is mum; there was early indication that he was merely playing the "I - want - to - be - coaxed" game, all the while really intending to run. But he also must now be feeling pressure from the other side, too.

He appears convinced that Councilman Oliver Murray will decide to run. Murray is Haddad's political enemy No. 1, but the mayor knows that a three-way race with Ross and Murray could give Ross a considerable edge. Although Murray and Ross are anti-establishment, they can find plenty to differ about. Murray might capture some black votes from Ross, but it is obvious that a Murray - Haddad fight could have a splitting effect on the white community, regardless of their consistent differences.

Again Ross looks at his 1.089 votes in 1968. He beat Murray by 236 votes. Murray carried three precincts — his own in upper Ord Terrace, the one where the Gateway Auto Center is now located, and lower Ord Terrace. Murray was second to Bob Bratt in the extreme southern Kimball Street area. Ross won four precincts with 735 total votes — all in predominantly black, central Seaside. In those four, Mrs. Pearl Carey ran second, and Murray ran third twice, fourth once and fifth once. In each of four precincts Ross didn't win, Ross ran third.

The history of Haddad and Ross at the polls in local elections is interesting. Ross has run four times, all for council, beginning in 1960. That year he ran sixth. Two years later he moved up to third. He was elected as the second-place finisher in 1964 and was re-elected as top vote-getter in 1968. Haddad has run three times, twice for mayor and once for council. In 1962 he ran for mayor and was defeated by Andy Anderson. In 1964 he headed the council race in which Ross ran second — he had a 113-vote margin over Ross. And in 1966 when a record 3,165 voters turned out for a city election, Haddad won the mayoralty with 1,358 votes, beating Jerry McGrath by 179.

But all of the speculation could be moot, of course. Haddad is still disclaiming his candidacy, and Murray says he won't declare until Feb. 12, Lincoln's birthday.

Murray has hinted a surprise, and that sets tongues wagging whether he might just sit this one out. His job as administrator of Beverly Manor Convalescent Hospital in Carmel has demanded consderable of his time.

If Haddad should stay out of the election, that would presumably put Ross against Houser for mayor and job one of the so-called establishment to run for his seat.

Pete Cruz, immediate past chairman of the planning commission, then becomes a likely prospect.

On the other side, the Coalition has been concentrating on getting registrations up and last week said little about candidates.

Besides Mrs. Carey and the Rev. H.H. Lusk, furniture store owner Ed Battle has expressed interest in running for council. CML

AUTO FEUD AGAIN?

Analysis

Monterey Mayor Al Madden is reopening that Utah Construction Co. plan for a Monterey auto row out the Salinas highway.

About a year ago when the Utah plan was announced just as Seaside was trying to swap up its Gateway Auto Center, the talk heated up the Monterey - Seaside feud. But this time Mayor Lou Haddad was nonplussed, noting that Monterey had been trying to find relocation for its downtown auto dealer for some time.

Apparently Madden is setting his sights on the Big Two — Roller Chevrolet and Beattie Ford — who sunned the repeated efforts of the Seaside urban renewal agency to entice them to move. In all, 12 other Monterey dealers have resisted Seaside's center, including Cypress Chrysler - Plymouth and Carminati Oldsmobile.

Meanwhile, Seaside's Gateway got its second, dealer construction start last week when Butts Pontiac - Cadillac opened 6 to 8 months of building. Wester Volkswagen is well along, but only two other dealers are even close to starting.

Graham Buick has opened bids and is reportedly trying to pare down items. Principal Lincoln - Mercery is rumored to be getting reach to "trade down" with the urban renewal agency for a smaller parcel.

As with all the dealers, money — the almost total lack of it for borrowing, and the interest on it, and construction costs, and what - have - you — is plaguing the other committed dealers — Arnold Green, Bob Baird and Bud Marshall.

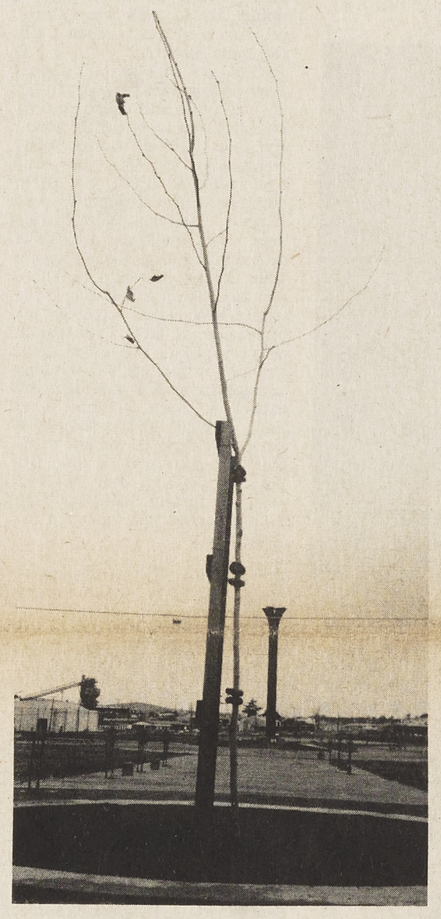
That leaves three of the 10 parcels in the center with no construction planned on them, and that just might rekindle that Monterey - Seaside feud.

Two of the three parcels are owned one each by Butts and Wester. The third was first committed to Jack Julian when he still owned Cypress Motors. But when he sold out, Sam Matar said he wouldn't move. Ramsey Motors then agreed to buy it, but backed out later.

Butts and Wester each might be willing to part with a parcel, and by juggling with Principal, the UR agency could then come up with a five-acre chunk. That reportedly is what Roller would have to have to become interested.

Madden probably knew this last week when he announced imminent Utah plans. If Roller could be sold on Gateway that would go a long way to killing the Utah deal.

Meanwhile, it appears as if only Wester and Butts will be selling cars in Seaside by year's end. CML



'DISTRESSED'

THE SEASIDE Tree Committee is at war with the Seaside Redevelopment Agency. The main battle is over the $10,000 planter at the Hillsdale entrance (off Broadway) to the Gateway Auto Center. Originally, the "bedraggled specimen" at left was set in the planter, and drew a storm of protest. Then just recently, the oak tree at right replaced that. In a letter to the agency, Emil Schmidt, councilman and tree committee chairman, said his group was "distressed and alarmed at the ruthless planting" of the oak. He said his committee was to have been consulted before the planting, noting that it had been agreed long ago that a fir, pine or some evergreen suitable to be decorated as a Christmas tree was to have been planted there. Schmidt called on the agency to return the oak to its owner. He also criticized the other trees along the mall in the center and asked that they be removed. John Perkins Photo

BALLOT ISSUE DEBATE

Councilmen will argue Thursday, Jan. 29, whether to ask voters about some 10 local, state and national issues in the April city elections.

The study session will begin at 7:30 p.m. at city hall.

Already on the list will be whether the city should sell the old city hall and make a deal for the Pit, the shopping center on Broadway just west of Noche Buena. Councilmen voted to take that action last Thursday. The ballot proposition will be advisory and will not be binding on the council.

The ballot proposition on the Pit became necessary when City Atty. Saul Weingarten ruled that an exchange of property must be considered a sale of public land and therefore ultimately would require a 4/5s majority approval by the council. Both Councilmen Steve Ross and Oliver Murray opposed the trade, which, if they voted the same, would defeat the measure.

At the study session the key local issue will be the length of term for mayor, which is now four years. Several councilmen have indicated they favor a reduction in the term to two years so that the control of the council — i.e. three of five members — will be at stake every two years. At present, council control is assured of contest only every four years when the mayor is elected, as this year. Weingarten has ruled that if the voters approve this measure this April, the newly elected mayor will serve for two years.

Other issues to be debated include lowering the voting age, cross-busing for school desegregation, Peninsula-wide government, legalizing marijuana, withdrawing troops immediately from Vietnam, sec education classes in schools and public tax support of parochial schools.

Mayor Lou Haddad, who proposed the list, also said he wanted to discuss whether to change the name of Seaside.

NAACP TO MEET

Manuel Olivas of the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee will discuss conditions and problems of farm workers in Californis at the regular monthly meeting of the Monterey Peninsula branch of the NAACP. The meeting will be held Wednesday, Jan. 28, at 8 p.m. at King Junior High in Seaside.

LITTLE BIT

...on most anything

We got a thoroughly deserved chewing-out by a Seaside businessman the other day. Another added his beefs later.

Their criticism attacked our negative attitude about Seaside's future. They recounted our apparent penchant for writing stories about declining retail sales, a splitting of the community over trading the Pit, dropping population, the federal stranglehold over the city through urban renewal, the defactor segregation of most of our schools and on and on.

We thumbed back through the Sentinel files and we had to agree — not much brightness. And it really doesn't neutralize things when we point out that most every newspaper and radio and TV station in the country take about the same tack.

We don't argue well on our feet, and so we didn't have much of a comeback to these critics. We still don't, excpt to say:

We believe it our job to report conditions as they exist and we believe we have been right, for the most part. We believe that only by pointing out our city's problems can we hope residents will do something about solving them.

And if it will make our critics feel any better, we'll turn over this column to any optimist who can add some brightness and cheer. Really! CML

FILING OPENS

The four-week filing period for Seaside's city election opens Thursday, Jan. 29. It also signals the first time California's tough new law on financial disclosure for public officials will be applied.

The filing period closes at city hall at noon Thursday, Feb. 19, which is 54 days before the elction, Tuesday, April 14. The Feb. 19 date is also the final day for voters to register for the election.

Candidates must file nominating papaers containing the signatures of at least five but no more than 10 registered voters to qualify for the ballot. They must meet the qualifications of registered voters — residence in the state for one year prior to election day, in the county for 90 days and in the precinct for 54 days.

On filing each candidate must disclose any fiancial interest exceeding $10,000 in any firm or venture that might do business or be affected by city government. Current officeholders and appointed public officials must file their disclosure statements by election day, April 14. An official not seeking re-election presumably would not be required to file the statement.

ANTI-POVERTY ELECTS BATTLE

ED BATTLE, owner of Battle's New and Used Furniture & Appliance at 656 Broadway, was elected president of the Monterey Peninsula Anti-Poverty Council last week. He defeated acting President Mrs. Nancy McClintock by a vote of 24-19.

A ruling by county anti-poverty director Jim Boylson, reported by the Rev. H.H. Lusk, opened the election to all Peninsula residents in attendance at the meeting. The elction had been postponed in December because of a lack of a quorum of 27 members of the board of directors.

Elected vice president was Rudy Williams of Monterey. He was unopposed after Mrs. Pearl Carey withdrew. Cleveland Williams, Monterey Peninsula College recreation director, was named vice president, defeating Mrs. Charlene Sherrill. W. C. Greenwell of Seaside, former secretary of the local council, defeated Mrs. Ann White for the job of tr4asurer.

Battle, 31, has been in business in Seasdie since 1964, first in hauling ahd home repair, then in 1967 in the used furniture business. He and his wife, Annie, opened their first store on Santa Barbara, later moved to 600 Broadway. They moved to their present location last year.

Battle served more than 12 years in the armed forces, first in the Navy for nearly He was a staff sergeant when he was discharged.

The Battles live at 7 Mercedes Ct. They have three children Ed Jr. 6, Lloyd 3 and Michael 9 months.

Visionary To Speak

Henry Still, a journalist and public relations practitioner who is so concerned with the survival of the human race that he has written and published several books on the subject, will speak at Monterey Peninsula College Friday, Ja. 30, on "Man: The Next Thirty Years."

His lecture, co-sponsored by MPC's community services office and the American Association of University Women, Monterey Peninsula Branch, will start at 8 p.m. in Lecture-Forum 103. The event is open to the public without charge, and no tickets will be required for admission.

Of his lecture, Still has said: "I quite agree that hand-wringing is useless on the enviornmental question, which now has entered the political arean. I'll certainly have some suggestions for future solutions, although some are far out.

"My main theme is that virtually no one is thinking far enough into the future as we tackle the problem, and that some bold new approaches are necessary."

New Program For Seniors

Men and women, 55 years of age or more, who are retired or planning retirement are invited to join a discussion group at the Seaside Adult Center, 972 Hilby Ave. on Monday afternoons from 1-3.

Reliable facts in the field of health, nutrition, consumer protection, income maintenance, employment, public assistance, liesure-time activities and resources will ehlp to form a basis for these conversations.

The first meeting was held Monday under the leadership of Elizabeth Corr, community director for the Del Monte Villa Senior Center, now under construction. Other professional leaders will be invited to participate as the group indicates its interests.

At noon next Monday, hot soup, bread and butter and coffee will be served for 25¢ per person.

Your Social Security

Q My company has a policy of retiring employees at age 65. Since I will be 65 in May, I would like to know what I can do now to be ready when I file for Social Security.
A. You are wise to think ahead. There are several things you can do now which will speed up processing your application when you file. First, secure documents which establish your correct date of birth. A Birth certificate or a baptismal certificate, recorded shortly after your birth, usually takes care of this requirement. Second, since your Social Security benefits are based on your earnings, you must have recent earnings information available. You should be prepared to tell us the exact amount of last year's earnings and approximately how much you expect to earn in this year. Last, which should have been mentioned first, if you are married and your wife is also filing for benefits, she will be asked to furnish the same type of documents and earnings informaton.

Q. I have a domestic employee and paid her more than $50 cash in the last quarter. She does not want me to report her wages and pay the Social Security contribution. What should I do?
A. You have no choice. You are required by law to report these wages and pay the Social Security Contribution since you paid her more than $50 in cash. The report for October, November and December is due by January 31st.

(Mail your questions to Social Security, c/o the Seaside News-Sentinel, P.O. Box 736, Seaside, or phone the Social Security office 373-3351.)

Smith Named To EOP Post

Sherman Smith of Seaside, a member of the Monterey Peninsula College Board of trustees, has been appointed to the state Advisory Committee on Extended Opportunity Programs and Services.

The committee was created to evaluate all EOP projects submitted by junior colleges for approval and funding. MPC's recently announced grant of $51,-735 for continuance and expansion of its EOP program for disadvantaged students was the result of such an evaluation.

Tax Book

"Your Federal Income Tax", a 160 page booklet on federal taxes, written in layman's language, is now available at most offices of the Internal Revenue Service.

Nickel-a-word Want Ads

January 28, 1970 Vol. 1 - No. 37

CONSUMER POWER

Offering a refund for all or part of the purchase price -- or a nerchandise gift -- for merely sending in labels and boxtops is a favorite advertising method of many companies, known to us by these brand names -- Libby's, Green Giant, Birdseye, Pillsbury, General Mills, Sara Lee, Pepperidge Farm, Campbell's Chicken o' the Sea, Lipton's Stouffer's, Del Monte, Swanson's, Kraft, Jell-O, Lawry's, French's, Stokely, Borden, Lever Brothers, Proctor & Gamble, Colgate-Palmolive, and many others.

Every grocery store has from 50 to 200 refundable items on the shelves. The higher the ratio of "brand name" to "private brand" products in the store, the better refunding territory it is.

Most refund offers are intended to attract new customers, but others seem to me to be the advertiser's way of saying, "Thanks for continuing to buy our brand." Competition is intense for space on grocers' shelves. Your good will is all-important to advertisers. Without consumers, where would they be?

By becoming a "refunder," you can obtain a legal rebate on part of your grocery expenditure. Any consumer, with a minum of effort, can bring in $5 a month. With my family of five, I can easily bring in $15 a month. With a bit of brand-switching and label-swapping with friends, I have had the postman bring me as much as $25 a month, for several months in a row.

By the way, my postman's teen-aged daughter is now doing the refunding for their family. He was quite impressed by the stream of mail to my house.

If you are not firmly convinced that one particular brand of detergent holds the upper hand, then you might not mind switching brands, according to what is currently "refundable," as I do. My clothes are just as "sparkling" white as when I faithfully used one top brand execlusively.

I am not hesitant, either, to switch from Green Giant to Libby's to Del Monte to Stokely canned corn or green beans, depending on how the refunding winds blow. My family is eating well all the while. Of course, I still do buy private brands occasionally, but I have found that it is more economical not to buy them all the time.

It is impossible to find out about all these refund offers just by looking for the forms in stores, but there are over 50 publications printed in the U.S. which inform consumers of all the refund offers that are currently open. And it is impossible to "refund" without at least one of these publications.

Listed below are three monthly refund publications, which are, in my opinion, the best in the field at present. This is a personal recommendation, not an endorsement by this newspaper. After studying the wide field of publications, and comparing them over a period of time, I chose these three over many others.

The natural reaction, when learning that this world of refunding exists is usually one of enthusiasm. But don't let it run away with you. Don't send for all the other publications you will see advertised. There is no reason for you to go to the same expense, time and money-wise, just to arrive at the same probable results.

AuickSilver, Dept. 203, Milford, N.Y. 13806 -- a mimeograpmed bulletin sent out the first of the month -- oldest and most reliable of all--screens out companies with poor pay records --tests many offers -- $3.50 a year. Companion publication, How to Turn Boxtops into Dollars unnecessary for readers of this column. Companion publication, Contest Bulletin, reports rules of sweepstakes and contests monthly for only $2 a year (price going up soon.) We will be covering the subject of sweepstakes and contests in this column later this year.

Refund Reports, Dept. E, R.D. #1 Renlee Ave., Ellwood City, Pa. 16117 -- a neatly alphabetized, printed bulletin -- large, clear print - sent out first of month -- runs form-swapping service for subscribers -- $3.25 a year. Publications, Run and Profit, No Expiration Date and Golden Book of Refunding, Box 2620, Hannibal, Ohio 43941 (send $2) for someone in another city who will not be reading this column. I will give them much of the same information.

FireFly Reporter, Dept. MC, 116 W. 4th St., Redwood Falls, Minn. 56283 -- sent out middle of month -- newspaper tabloid form -- small print -- half refund offers and half ads to buy, sell, trade forms, coupons, trading stamps, lables, etc. -- form-swapping service for subscribers - $4 a year. Companion publications, Friendly Way, Busy Bee Circular and Dillies for a Dollar are not recommended.

The last publication I am going to mention is not of the subscription type. I recommend it because it fills the need of newcomers to refunding to learn about the huge backlong of refund offers that have been announced in the jpast and are still running. Where one of the first three publications I mentioned should be purchased on a subscription basis, the purchase of Money Tree should be a one-time thing. At the very most, you should not send for one more than twice a year, as the information is repetiitive, revised only slightly every month.

Money Tree, Box 232RE, Manchester, No. 63011 -- usually lists about 600 offers (not all available here) -- send for offers near front of each section first as they are the oldest offers -- price is $1 by third class mail, $1.18 by first class - revised edition printed middle of every month. Publications, SilverGrams and JayBees, which advertise in Money Tree are not recommended.

Entering the refunding circle requires an investment of a few dollars to start with, but you will repay your checking account very quickly when the refunds come rolling into your mailbox.

And, the harder it is to come up with the subscription money, the more you need the information it would offer you!

ORDINANCE NO. 366

ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF SEASIDE APPROVING NDP ANNUAL INCREMENT FILING OF APPLICATION FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE, THE URBAN RENEWAL PLAN, AND FEASIBILITY OF RELOCATION.

The City Council of the City of Seaside does ordain as follows:

1. On October 22, 1969, the City Council adopted Resolution 69-63. approving the NDP Annual Increment, Filing of Application for Financial Assistance, the Urban Renewal Plan and Feasibility of Relocation for the Neighborhood Development Program, Northern Calif. A-2-1 & 2, after giving all required notices and holding all required public hearings requisite to said approval.

2. The City Council is advised that said approval should be by Ordinance, rather than by Resolution.

3. The approval by Ordinance concerns a change of form only and no change of substance from the Resolution of approval heretofore adopted.

4. The direction of the City Council is being implemented and immediate approval of the City Council is required to assure availability of Non-Cash Grant-In-Aid Credits of the City for payment of the City's share of the costs thereof, which said costs are due or becoming due. As such, this Ordinance is an urgency measure since it affects funds available or to be available during the current fiscal year for the payment of City obligations, and that the amount of the total project cost for 1970 has now been confirmed by the Department of Housing and Urban Development as $1,430,000.

5. Under the provisions of Title I of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development is authorized to provide financial assistance to Local Public Agencies for undertaking and carrying out Neighborhood Development Programs; and

6. It is provided in such Act that contracts for financial aid thereunder shall require that the Urban Renewal Plan for the respective urban renewal areas comprising the Neighborhood Development Program be approved by the governing body of the locality in which the areas are situated and that such approval include findings by the governing body that: (1) the financial aid to be profided in the contract is necessary to enable the Program to be undertaken in accordance with the Urban Repnewal Plan; (2) the Urban Renewal Plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the locality as a whole, for the rehabilitation or redevelopment of the urban renewal areas by private enterprise; (3) the Urban Renewal Plan conforms to a general plan for the development of the locality as a whole; and (4) the Urban Renewal Plan gives due consideration to the provision of adequate park and recreational areas and facilities, as may be desirable for neighborhood improvement, with special consideration for the health safety, and welfare of children residing in the general vicinity of the sites covered by the Plan; and

7. It is desirable and in the public interest that the Redevelopment Agency of the City of Seaside (herein called the "Local Public Agency") undertake and carry out the Neighborhood Development Program (herein called the "Program") identified as "Laguna Grande Project" and encompassing the area or areas as shown on attached map, Exhibit A. which is incorporated herein by reference , in the City of Seaside, State of California (herein called the "Locality;") and

8. The Local Public Agency has applied for financial assistance under such Act and proposes to enter into a contract or contracts with the Department of Housing and Urban Development for the undertaking of, and for making available financial assistance for, the Program; and

9. The Local Public Agency has made studies of the location, physical condition of structures; land use; environmental influences; and social, cultural, and economic conditions of the urban renewal area or areas comprising the Program and has determined that the areas are blighted and substandard areas and that they are detrimental and a menace to the safety, health, and welfare of the inhabitants and users thereof and of the Locality at large, because of substandard structures, lack of adequate public improvements, parks and recreation facilities, drainage, sewerage and other facilities, and the members of this Governing Body have fully been apprised by the Local Public Agency and are aware of these facts and conditions; and

10. There has been prepared and referred to the City Council of the Locality (herein called the "Governing Body") for review and approval an Urban Renewal Plan for the urban renewal areas, dated September 23, 1969, and consisting of twenty-three (23) pages and four (4) exhibits and three (3) maps (maps being as follows: (1) boundary map (2) land use plan (3) 1970 land disposition supplemental map), and set of conditions under which the Redevelopment Agency of the City of Seaside will make relocation payments, which set of conditions is set forth in the Relocation Program, and a Schedule of Average Annual Gross Rentals for Standard Housing in Locality dated June 26, 1969 and a Fixed Relocation Payments Schedule dated March 22, 1965; and

11. The Urban Renewal Plan has been approved by the Governing Body of the Local Public Agency, as evidenced by the Copy of said Body's duly certified resolution approving the Urban Renewal Plan, which is attached therto; and

12. A general plan has been prepared and is recognized and used as a guide for the general development of the Locality as a whole; and

13. The Planning Commission of the City of Seaside, which is the duly designated and acting official planning body for the Locality, has submitted to the Governing Body its report and recommendations respecting the Urban Renewal Plan for the urban renewal areas comprising the Program and has certified that the Urban Renewal Plan conforms to the general plan for the Locality as a whole, and the Governing Body has duly considered the report, recommendations, and certification of the planning body; and

14. The Local Public Agency has prepared and submitted a program for the relocation of individuals and families that may be displaced as a result of carrying out the Program in accordance with the Urban Renewal Plan; and

15. There have also been presented to the Governing Body information and data respecting the relocation program which has been prepared by the Local Public Agency as a result of studies, surveys, and inspections in the areas comprising the program and the assembling and analysis of the data and information obtained from such studies, surveys, and inspections; and

16. The members of the Governing Body have general knowledge of the conditions prevailing in the urban renewal areas and of the availability of proper housing in the Locality for the relocation of individuals and families that may be displaced by the Program and, in the light of such knowledge of local housing conditions, have carefully considered and reviewed such proposals for relocation; and

17. It is necessary that the Governing Body take appropriate official action respecting the relocation program and the Urban Renewal Plan for the Program, in conformity with the contracts for financial assistance between the Local Public Agency and the United States of America, acting by and through the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development; and

18. The Governing Body is cognizant of the conditions that are imposed in the undertaking with Federal financial assistance under Title I, including those prohibiting discrimination because of race, color, creed, or national origin; and

19. That it is hereby found and determined that the urban renewal areas comprising the Program are blighted areas and qualify as eligible areas under Section 33,400 et seq. of the Health and Safety Code of the State of California.

20. That the Urban Renewal Plan for the Program, having been duly reviewed and considered, is hereby approved, and the City Clerk of the City of Seaside be and is hereby directed to file said copy of the Urban Renewal Plan with the minutes of this meeting.

21. That it is hereby found and determined that where clearance is proposed that the objectives of the Urban Renewal Plan cannot be achieved through more extensive rehabilitation of portions of the urban renewal areas comprising the Program.

22. That it is hereby found and determined that the financial aid provided and to be profided pursuant to the contracts for Federal financial assistance pertaining to the Program is necessary to enable the Program to be undertaken in accordance with the Urban Renewal Plan for the areas comprising the Program.

23. That it is hereby found and determined that the Urban Renewal Plan for the Program conforms to the general plan of the Locality.

24. That it is hereby found and determined that the Urban Renewal Plan for the urban renewal areas comprising the Program will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the Locality as a whole, for the renewal of the areas by private enterprise.

25. That it is hereby found and determined that the Urban Renewal Plan for the urban renewal areas gives due consideration to the provision of adequate park and recreational areas and facilities, as may be desirable for heighborhood improvement, with special consideration for the health, safety, and welfare of children residing in the general vicinity of the sites covered by the Plan.

26. That it is hereby found and determined that the Program for the proper relocation of individuals and families displaced in carrying out the Urban Renewal Plan in decent, safe, and sanitary dwellings in conformity with acceptable standards is feasible and can be reasonably and timely effected to permit the proper prosecution and completion of the Plan; and that such dwellings or dwelling units available or to be made available to such displaced individuals and families, are at least equal in number to the number of displaced individuals and families, are not generally less desirable in regard to public utilities and public and, commercial facilities than the dwellings of the displaced individuals and families in the areas comprising the Program, are available at rents or prices within the financial means of the displaced individuals and families, and are reasonable accessible to their places of employment.

27. That, in order to implement and facilitate the effectuation of the Urban Renewal Plan hereby approved, it is found and determined that certain official action must be taken by this Body with reference, among other things to changes in zoning, the vacating and removal of streets, alleys and other public ways, the establishment of new street patterns, the location and relocation of sewer and water mains and other public facilities, and other public action, and, accordingly, this Body hereby (a) pledges its cooperation in helping to carry out the Urban Renewal Plan, (b) requests the various officials, departments, boards, and agencies of the Locality having administrative responsibilities in the premises likewise to cooperate to such end and to exercise their respective functions and powers in a manner consistent with the Urban Renewal Plan, and (c) stands ready to consider to take appropriate action upon proposals and measures designed to effectuate the Urban Renewal Plan.

28. That additional financial assistance under the provisions of Title I of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended, is necessary to enable the land in the areas comprising the Program, and accordingly, the proposed Program and the annual increment are approved and the Local Public Agency is authorized to file an application for financial assistance under Title I.

All ordinances or resolutions or parts of ordinances or resolutions in conflict herewith are hereby repealed insofar as they conflict with this ordinance.

This Ordinance, being an urgency measure, the statement of urgency appearing therein, shall become effective immediately upon adoption and shall be published once after its passage and adoption in the Seaside New-Sentinel.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a reglar meeting of the City Council of the City of Seaside duly held on the 22nd day of January 1970, by the following vote:
AYES, and for passage thereof, Councilmen: Schmidt, Houser and Mayor Haddad

DESIGN AWARD

MONTEREY PENINSULA COLLEGE'S lecture-forum, designed by Fred Keeble and George Rhoda, Monterey architects, has been selected as one of 16 winners of 300 nominated in a college building design competition sponsored by College and University Business, a national magazine published in Chicago. The lecture-forum, which was completed in September, 1968, is mentioned as follows in College and University Business: "To provide a facility that would allow visual and audio materials to be presented easily to large groups of students, the architects designed a freely sweeping structure which provides three lecture halls of varying seating capacity - all located around one multimedia preparation and projection core."

PURR-FECT PULCHRITUDE

CONNIE JO PFISTER likes cats -- real or in toy form -- and she also likes the new "fabulous fake" furs. She reclines on a sampling of material that will be shown Feb. 4-5 at the San Carlos Hotel during the two-day 1970 Premier Showing of the International Yardage Fair. Over 20,000 varieties of foreign and domestic fabrics will be offered to visitors for show and sale. Demonstrations in sewing and fashion accessories -- including one on "Fashions and Furs" will be offered each day at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. in the new "Designer's Gallery." Show hours are from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Form 1040 U.S. Individual ... for the ... January 1–December 31, 19... or other taxable year ... U.S. Treasury Department—Internal Revenue Service

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) On tax returns sent in now, about how long does it take to get a refund?

A) It normally takes 5–6 weeks if the return is accurate and complete. When a large volume of returns are received at the same time, such as near the April 15 filing deadline, it may take longer.

Taxpayers expecting a refund should have their check within 10 weeks from the time they filed or a letter explaining why it is delayed. For this reason, a taxpayer should wait 10 weeks before contacting IRS about a refund which has not been received.

Q) All my income is from wages. Will I need any other forms besides the 1040?

A) Nearly half of all taxpayers will just file the one-page Form 1040. However, if you itemize deductions or have income from other sources such as property sales, rents, pensions, etc., you must attach the supporting schedules for these items.

The back of the Form 1040 in your tax package indicates when a schedule will be necessary. An estimated 22 million taxpayers will need to add only one schedule to their Form 1040.

Q) Is insurance compensation for injuries received in an auto accident taxable?

A) No, compensation for injuries suffered in an accident are tax free.

Q) What records should you keep when you are claiming someone as a dependent?

A) Your records should indicate the total cost of the dependent's support and the amount that you provided. Also, you would have to show whether the dependent meets the other dependency tests.

Q) Can anyone use the envelope in the tax form package or just those expecting a refund?

A) The envelope is provided for your convenience and should be used whether you are expecting a refund or not.

Q) There is a mistake on the label that came with my tax package. How should I correct it?

A) Make a correction in name and address on the label itself. If the Social Security number is wrong, cross out the number on the label and enter the correct number in the box provided at the top of the form.

Put the corrected label on the return you file so that your return will be properly identified and the needed correction can be made in IRS records.

Q) I need a car for use on my job. How do I handle the expenses for tax purposes?

A) You may either deduct your actual operating expenses for the business use of the car or 10 cents for every mile of actual business use up to 15,000 miles. Mileage over 15,000 may be deducted at 7 cents a mile. Tolls, parking and similar expenses may be added to the mileage deduction.

If you use the actual expense method, you may include depreciation, gas and oil, insurance, repairs and other operating costs. However, if you use the same car for business and personal travel, you must apportion the operating expenses. For example, on a car used half for business, just half the operating expenses may be deducted.

Q) I'm all set to file my return but my W–2 hasn't come yet. What should I do?

A) Wait until your W–2 arrives. The law requires employers to issue tax withholding statements to employees by January 31 so you should receive the statement shortly.

If you don't get your W–2 statement by the end of January, ask your employer about it.

Negro History Week Planned

National Negro History Week will be celebrated on the Peninsula Feb. 8 - 14 with a series of events sponsored jointly by Monterey Peninsula College and the NAACP, Monterey Peninsula Branch, according to James Taylor, NAACP president.

The week will begin with a lecture by Claude Brown, the third-year Rutgers law student who authored "Manchild in the Promised Land," a book which vivdly depicts the struggle of a black boy to find his identity in society. The lecture is scheduled for Sunday, Fe. 8, 3 p.m. in the MPC gymnasium. Admission is by free tickets, available now at the college community services office.

Monday, Feb. 9, at 7:30 p.m., a dinner at Perry Boys' Smorgy, Monterey, will feature an address by Mrs. Verna Cansen, a legislative advocate in Sacramento for the West Coast Region of NAACP.

Other planned events, with specific locales to be announced by all to start at 7:30 p.m., are an evening of readings from the works of Larraine Hansberry by Bradford Vaughn, Tuesday, Feb. 10; a musical program presented by Mrs. W.E. Williams, Wednesday, Feb. 11; a talent show presented by Mrs. Henry Hutchins, Thursday, Feb. 12; a youth art and film festival, Friday, Feb. 13; and an evening of dance, with arrangements to be made by Mrs. Gerald Sweet, All-over co-chairmen to coordinate the week are Mrs. Evelyn Smith and Mrs. Mattye Blakeney.

Environment Projects

Three major projects designed to help solve the environmental problems of Monterey Bay were launched Tuesday at Monterey Peninsula College. Discussing the projects with the press were Dr. Allen C. Nadler, a Salinas endocrinologist who is secretary to the board of Scientists' Institue for Public Information (SIPI), a national organization; Dr. David Eppel of Hopkins Marine Station, sho heads a steering committee to set up the Monterey Bay Area Committee on Environmental Information, which will be an offshoot of SIPI; William Lindsay, an MPC life science instructor who is a member of SIPI and the steering committee; and Dr. Geroge J. Faul, MPC president.

At the request of Dr Margaret Mead, the noted anthropologist, MPC has provided an office on campus that will become without cost to the college, the West Coast headquarters of SIPI, whose East Coast headquarters are in New York. Dr. Nadler will use this office for developing a series of workshops for legislators interested in environment and who, as a consequence, could be instrumental in sponsoring environmental legislation.

Concentration of scientists and laymen who will make up the Monterey Bay Area Committee on Environmental information will be on the air, water and soil pollution problems of the entire bay area, including Santa Cruz and other bay cities. Through workshops and conferences, information and ideas will be exchanged, existing data evaluated and new data developed.

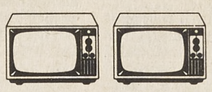
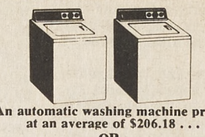
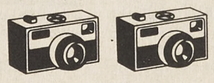
Which should you buy ?



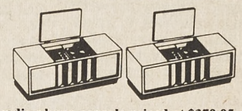
A color TV set priced at $359.95 . . .
OR
another unit priced at $429.95?



An automatic washing machine priced at an average of $206.18 . . .
OR
another model priced at an average of $254.98?



An instant-load autoexposure camera priced at $69.95 . . .
OR
another model priced at $119.50?



A radio-phono console priced at $379.95 . . .
OR
another console priced at $499.95?

THE ANSWERS to the questions above show how easily you and your family can lose money each year in your search for quality. The fact is that you, like so many others, may be buying virtually "blindfolded." For example:

On the basis of impartial laboratory tests, the color TV set priced at $359.95 was judged better in overall quality than the model priced at $429.95. (Possible saving: up to $70.00)

The washing machine priced at an average of $254.98 was judged inferior in washing ability to the model priced at an average of $206.18. (Possible saving: up to $48.80)

The instant-load autoexposure camera priced at $69.95 was top rated over similar models priced as high as $119.50. (Possible saving: up to $49.55)

The radio-phono console priced at $379.95 was judged better in overall quality than the console priced at $499.95 and was rated a "Best Buy." (Possible saving: up to $120.00)

These "hidden" values and savings were revealed in recent issues of Consumer Reports. Hundreds of products like these are rated in the latest 448-page issue of the famous Consumer Reports Buying Guide. A copy is yours as a gift with a one year subscription to Consumer Reports.

How these impartial tests are made

Consumer Reports is published monthly by Consumers Union, a nonprofit, public-service organization. CU has absolutely no connection with any manufacturer and prohibits the use of its findings for promotional purposes. It accepts no advertising, no "gifts" or "loans" of products for testing, no contributions from any commercial interest; it derives its income from the sale of its publications to over 1,500,000 subscribers and newsstand buyers all over the U.S.

Consumers Union's own shoppers buy, on the open market, random samples of automobiles, clothing, foods, household appliances and supplies, photographic and sports equipment, cosmetics, hi-fi components, and most other kinds of products you may be thinking of buying. These are tested comparatively by chemists and engineers. Each regular monthly issue of Consumer Reports brings you the latest findings, with ratings by brand name and model number as "Best Buy," "Acceptable" or "Not Acceptable."

Facts you need for your family's welfare

In addition, Consumer Reports brings you a wide range of authoritative—sometimes startling—articles. You regularly receive candid, down-to-earth discussions of deceptive packaging practices (with examples cited by name), advertising claims, credit buying and the actual cost of credit . . . honest reports on vitamins and other drugs . . . revealing facts about new, highly promoted gadgets that are often a waste of money.

"Hidden" values and savings discovered for you

Here are a few more examples of the "hidden" values and savings discovered in the CU laboratories:

. . . a portable circular saw priced at $24.95 was judged better in overall quality than another model priced at $49.95. (Possible saving: up to $25.00)

. . . a coffee urn priced at $13.95 was top-rated over other models priced anywhere up to $45.95 and was judged a "Best Buy." (Possible saving: up to $32.00)

. . . a stereo amplifier kit priced at $64.95 was judged better in overall quality than a unit priced at $99.95 and was rated a "Best Buy." (Possible saving: up to $35.00)

"Read, respected and feared"

The frank reporting of Consumers Union has won wide acclaim. Time calls Consumers Union "The best known tester of consumer goods in the U.S." Newsweek says, "The magazine with the most decisive word on the quality of products is probably Consumer Reports." The National Observer calls it . . . "read, respected and feared."
